There was criticism heard in some quarters today because the champion doubled the price of admission resisterday to the persons who visited his training camp on the shores of Maunee bax. The champion charged 50 cents instead of 25 cents as on week days, and the paid attendance was 2.084, which netted $1.042, more than enough to defray training expenses for a week. Jack Kearns, manager of Dempsey, declined to take advantage of the Sunday throng, and charged the customary 25 cents to see the challenger work out. There were 1.690 paid admissions at the bempsey camp. Kearns is distributing a part of the money received for watching Dempsey train to churches and charitable organizations in the bay shore district. He presented the pastor of one church with a check for $100 to defray the expenses of a church entertainment, and in apprediation for the donation a Sunday school teacher visited the camp with a number of his class to convey their thanks.

Faye O'Neill, late star with Ziegfeld's Poilies, and now playing in vaudeville, who is a great basebail fan, has announced through Lieut G. H. Maines, honorary president of Michigan-Ontario league, that she will donate a silver cup to the loading batter of each of the Class B leagues operating under protection of the National association this season. In addition a $100 Victory bond will be presented to the highest batter in Class B bail.

Miss O'Neill already has had the cups made and they have been sent the presidents of the four Class B leagues. The cup for the Three-I league was presented to the officers of the league at the opening game of the season in Moline.

Naturally she roots for the Glants, but now that she has become a sort of godmother to the minor leagues, she's going to distribute her enthusiasm. The seen enough mipor leagues, she's going to distribute her enthusiasm. The seen enough mipor league games, is he says, to know they sometimes play just as good ball as one sees at the Polo grounds and I think the 'busher' players should be encouraged, so that's way I'm offering the trophies. Wherever I play, I siway's ask sil the ball players to the theater and they are good boosters for me as I am for them.

The silver crus the actress has presented are handsome in design, stand about 15 inches high and 10 inches across, and make trophies worth swating the ball for. The leading batter of each league to claim his cup, must have taken part in at least 25 games. Gabby Street, the veteran catcher who brought back many scars from the battlefields of France, is catching regularly again for the Nashville club.

The Milwaukee club has come to terms with Roy Hanson, the Beloit college pitcher, who had been turned over to Rewland by the Chicago White Sox. Hansen at first refused to report to the Rrewers and joined an independent team in Beloit Manager Rowland fully realizes he must trace his pitching staff and has decided to be rid of Kotzelnick and Williams. Besides being a batsman of considerable ability he also showed up well as a fly chaser and those who saw him play last season were not slow to predict a great career on the diamond for him.

T HAPPENS in the best required baseball families. The Chicks got up against a pitcher they couldn't hit, while the Crackers were up against a pitcher they couldn't hit, which is the answer to the defeat of the Tribe in Sunday's matinee at Russwood.

There are no alibis for the defeat, for it was a case of the Crackers pickling the ball at all stages, running bases and supplying the necessary defensive play to overthrow the Chicks. Bill Thweatt went in after the battle had been lost, and the Grackers also picked on his offerings for a flock of base hiss. It was the day for the Chicks to lose, for they were outhit, outplayed and foiled at every opportunity.

The Crackers just nachelly beat us,

The outstanding feature of Sunday's victory of the Crackers was the fourbase clout of Fred Bratchi, who last year was patrolling left, field for the Chicks and who is now on Charley Frank's roster. Fred, who formerly dropped many balls over in Spadeland while on the payroll of the Chicks, showed his former admirers that he is still there with the home run habit, and howled one high among the culiud brethren in the third inning. Bratchi was tickled to death that he bagged that homer, and especially because it happened in Memphis. He pulled off his cap, jumped into the air, kicked his heels together and grinned so wide that nothing could be seen except his teeth.

Herndon duplicated Bratchi's feat in The outstanding feature of Sunday's Herndon duplicated Bratchi's feat in he seventh by shooting the ball over he right field wall. Pitcher Boone, of the Crackers, is very naturally called Daniel, but his nitials are J. A. He comes from the University of Alabama.

Sam Mayer, Cracker captain, hit the longest drive of the season in the first inning Sunday, rapping one of Eddle Foster's fast ones to the center field fence, the ball hitting the boards on the first bounce. Mayer tried to make three bags on it and was called out at third, although he looked safe.

CHICKS RUIN ROBERTS.

Pitcher Roberts, of the Crackers, had is record spoiled by the Chicks in the crat inning Sunday. Previous to Sundays game Roberts had pitched 40 innings and had allowed but two runs, sut the Tribe got three before a feline ould lick his eyebrows, and away went lobbie to the shower.

4,816 FANS SAW GAME.

The biggest crowd of the 1919 basehall season occupied the stands Sunday, the turnstiles registering 4,816 faus the seats were all filled in grandstand and bleachers, and there were many fans sitting on the ground near the secreboard in left field, making ground rules necessary. In the grandstand many fans were standing, and many extra chairs were provided.
Many people came out to the park and went back to town after finding impossible to get in. The jam in front of Russwood was tremendous and t required a Herculean struggle to get through the gates. If required a sterculean struggle to get through the gates.

If was a big tribute to the Chicks, whose winning streak is the reason that the multitude turned out.

A fan in the stands back of the plate tried to show up Umpire George Black-burn, and while the fan showed some-body up, it wasn't the umpire.

The second guessers and the wise grandstand managers can tell exactly this morning what Manager Cy Barger should have done to win the ball game vice that he receives in running his

CERNEY TURNED BACK.

Jimmie Cerney, the young Chicage semipro, who played third base in a few games, has been turned back to Manager Kid Glesson, of the Chicago White Sox, from whence he came to Memphis. Cerney was merely in Memphis on trial, but he was found wanting and when Carl Manda was able to get back in the game, Cerney got the gate. And anyway, the club needed to turn loose somebody to make room for George Block, the Tribe's new catcher, who reported Sunday.

BLOCK TO WORK SOON.

George Block, the Tribe's new backstop, arrived early Sunday morning and got his name in the bex score the first day, batting for Thweatt in the ninth.
The best George could do was an easy grounded to the pitcher.
Block will not work for several days
yet, waiting to get in the proper shape, as he has played but one or two games this season. He comes to Memphis with a good reputation as a slugger and he is also all there when it comes to hardling the mitt.
We saw Block in the Kitty league
10 years ago and he looked like a major league prospect. He never got that high, but he has always been a good steady backstop and will undoubtedly make the Chicks a good man.

The San Antonio club has sold Out-fielder John Bargan to Bloomington, of the Three-I league. Baggan has been leading off and hitting well for the San Antonio team, but Mike Finn decided to make a change.

EW YORK. June 9.—The slump of the Chicago American league leaders, who lost five games out of six last week, was the outstanding feature of the struggles in the major leagues. Cleveland, winning four games and losing two, drew nearer the White- Sox and after Sunday's games Chicago had a one-game lead. The Indians made up for erratic fielding by pounding the ball for an average of 12 hits a game. Detroit continued to climb, reaching fourth place. The New York Nationals gained no ground, while excellent pitching enabled the Chicago Cubs to obtain a foothold in the first division, advancing Sunday to third place.

The Chicago American boxmen were somewhat ineffective, with the exception of Cicotte, who won his tenth straight victory in defeating Shore, of Boston, Thursday, Cleveland hammered Kerr and Danforth last Sunday. The White Sox outbatted Detroit, but the Tiger hits were of the long distance and scoring variety and netted three victories. Williams lost to New York Saturday, while on Sunday Shawkey pitched his fifth successive victory, allowing the Sox one hit.

Pitchers were used. Cleveland took two out of three from Eniladelphia, including Sunday's game.

After Washington defeated New York last Sunday the Yankees made a clean sweep in four games with Philadelphia. Shawkey shut out the Athletics with four hits Monday, but in the remaining contests the teams slaughtered each other's fwirlers.

Detroit dropped two close games to Boston and outslugged the world's champions in the third. St. Louis made only four hits off Johnson, of Washington. Thursday, while Shocker blanked the Senators Saturdas Sunday

The Southern Boiler Works won the first game over the White Star Cyclers, 2 to 1, while the second game went to the Chero-Colas, 4 to 6.

The Boiler Workers gave Richardson brilliant support in the first game, while Fitzpatrick was not given quite as good support. A throw to second in the last inning helped in the winning run. Score by innings:

The second game went to the Chero-Colas, due to the masterful way in which they supported Kimbrell and their ability to hit Goodman in the ninches. The Chero-Colas outplayed the league leaders in this contest. However, many hard-hit balls went direct to the Chero-Colas' waiting hands. Cohurn, Gribble and Albert fielded well, while Coburn and R. Kimbrell hit hard.
